Subject: Clarification of news about Samui Airport

Attention: President
The Stock Exchange of Thailand

With reference to news about Samui Airport , Bangkok Airways Public Company Limited (the Company) would like to explain as follows:

1. Samui airport was officially opened in 1989 which at that time the company submitted necessary documents to the Department of Civil Aviation and concerned authorities prior to construction. The company then was granted permission and the license to build Samui Airport
2. In 1999, the company signed an agreement with the Treasury Department to lease a plot of land to use as an extended aviation safety area in accordance to Air Aviation Act B.E. 1954. The company confirms that the claimed-land is located about 100 meters away from the runway and the boundary is not directly attached to the airport.
3. For title deeds near Bangrak swamp area issue, raised by the National Anti-Corruption Commission, the company would like to clarify that the company filed a request to the Department of Lands to convert from land certificates (NS 3 and NS-3K), purchased from previous owners, to land title deeds. The company confirms that all process has been carried out in compliance with rule and regulations.

Bangkok Airways Public Company Limited will fully cooperate with relevant authorities and will strictly comply with the laws in all respects.

The company confirms that Samui Airport is operating normally.

Please be informed accordingly,

Sincerely yours,
